JAMESSUCKLING.COM – James SUCKLING – Avril 2021

Score : 94-95 /100.

Impressive sample. This is really fine with long, refined and linear tannins that are so polished and beautiful. Full-bodied, tight and refined. Goes on for minutes

JEBDUNNUCK.COM – Jeb DUNNUCK – Mai 2021

Score : 94-96+ /100.

Another gem, the 2020 Château Moulin Du Cadet boasts a deep purple hue to go with full-bodied aromas and flavors of ripe currants, black cherries, crushed stone, and classy oak. A total blockbuster on the palate, it brings gorgeous richness and depth while still showing the pure, fresh, precise style of the vintage nicely. With ripe, polished tannins, impeccable balance, and a great finish, it should be snatched up by readers. - Jeb Dunnuck (5/23/202)

THE WINE ADVOCATE – Lisa PERROTTI BROWN – Mai 2021

Score : 92-94+ /100.

Deep purple-black colored, the 2020 Moulin du Cadet springs from the glass with lively scents of plum preserves, wild blueberries and black raspberries, plus suggestions of menthol, chargrill, Indian spices and tree bark. The medium to full-bodied palate is chock-full of ripe, juicy black and blue fruits, framed by velvety tannins and a racy backbone, finishing on a lingering fragrant-earth note. A property clearly on the upward swing, this is one to watch! This 2.85-hectare vineyard was acquired by the Lefèvre family in 2015, owners of the nearby Sansonnet and Soutard Cadet. The 100% Merlot vines have an average age of 35+ years and are planted at a density of 6,000 vines per hectare. The soil is a mix of fine clay and limestone.

VINOUS Neal Martin – Mai 2021*Score : 90-92 /100.

The 2020 Moulin du Cadet has a high-toned but controlled bouquet of copious black cherries, raspberry preserve, crushed violets and light iodine notes; the new oak here is nicely integrated. The palate is smooth on the entry thanks to its sensual velvety tannins. A very seductive Saint-Émilion with veins of marmalade and Seville orange toward the final.

VINOUS Antonio Galloni – Mai 2021*Score : 92-94 /100.

The 2020 Moulin du Cadet possesses tons of energy and vibrancy to complement its racy red/purplish berry fruit. Rose petal, mint, cedar, spice and sweet floral notes develop with a bit of coaxing in the glass, all framed by clean mineral notes that extend the finish. It's nice to see a less pushed style here, as the purity of the fruit is impressive. The 2020 might be the most refined Moulin du Cadet of recent times, or ever. It's a jewel of a wine, that much is certain.

Markus DEL MONEGO – Mai 2021*Score : 94 /100.

Dark purple color with violet hue and black core. Opulent and intense nose with excellent fruit, ripe blackberries, fresh figs, juicy plums and hints of sloe. Aromatic herbs and mild spices in the background, elegant toasting aroma. On the palate rich and well structured with excellent freshness, full-bodied with excellent balance and depth.

THE WINE CELLAR INSIDER – Jeff LEVE – mai 2021*Score : 92 – 94 /100.

With a deep, dark, garnet color, this lushly textured, rich, deep, concentrated, polished wine offers silky tannins and layers of sweet, chocolate enriched plums. The finish is long, showy and fruity, with a licorice, espresso and black cherry edge.

This is good, with rose petal, smoked earth, and raspberry fruits, edged with a slightly spiky juiciness that is attractive but pulls things up a little short on the finish. Clay limestone soils. A yield of 38hl/ha.
